Clergy Letter

Alleluia! Christ is risen!

Happy Easter, my CTK family! May has come and Mother's Day is rapidly approaching as we continue our Easter Celebration throughout this month of festive transition from spring into the end of the school year and summer "break" (for our children anyway).

As we continue in our liturgies to explore the occasions of divine encounter between Christ's followers and the risen Lord, we are called and called again into the mystery of Easter. Over the past three weeks, we've already explored some of that mystery together, but the enormity of the occasion is part of why this fifty-day-long season is as long as it is. Christ's disciples struggled not only to believe that he had risen, but also to understand their calling to participate in Christ's resurrection as they discovered time and again Christ alive in their midst. The raising back to life of someone who had been executed and laid for eternal rest in a tomb was no more expected in their time than it is in our own, yet Jesus' followers kept encountering him until they could no longer NOT believe. In the garden outside the tomb, Mary Magdalene came to believe. Locked in the upper room, encountering Jesus twice, the apostles, finally including Thomas, came to believe. On the Emmaus road, two more disciples walked with Christ, who became known to them in the breaking of the bread. On the beach, Jesus ate fish with the apostles, reconciled with Peter, and recalled him to follow as a disciples and a leader. And on the mountain, Jesus bid them all farewell, commissioning them to preach the gospel to all—regardless of nation of origin.

However we may take these stories of faith and divine encounter, the mystery of Easter invites us into God's love as a power stronger than death and the grave, that rekindles hope, light, and life within us—calling us with Christ's disciples to live into this mystery of participation in resurrection life. With the disciples' collective awe this Sunday, we continue to remember experiences of Christ's presence even after his departure from our world. And we continue to recognize that when two or three are gathered, Christ is with us. In a very real sense, Christ continues to appear amongst us as we encounter him in one another and in the world around us. We continue to find our faith strengthened and our lives enriched in communities of mutual love and support where Christ's mission and ministry is being carried out right here and right now. In short, we continue living into this calling to be resurrection people in a world in desperate need of hope, life, light, and love.

With the coming of the Holy Spirit on Pentecost ("fiftieth day"), this season of Easter will transition from the Mystery of the Resurrection into the triumph of

Deadline:

Please submit articles by the 15th of the prior month.

Christ's life and teachings carried on in those same ordinary disciples whose lives were turned upside down by God's call. Strengthened by the Holy Spirit, they rose from their crumbled hopes and lives to lead and build the early church, baptizing new members and families in the same way that we continue to do so two-thousand some years later—in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit. With them, we continue to be called into the life and ministry of our Risen Christ, to be ambassadors of God's abundance and to live out God's love in our world today. We continue to bring Christ to life in our gatherings and our chance encounters, as we work together to change the lives of those around us by the simple and profound gift of loving them.

As we continue to carry on the hopes and dreams of the earliest church, may this season of wrapping our hearts and minds around the mystery of what Christ's resurrection means to us in the 21st century be a rich and welcome blessing to us. May we continue to pray for and work toward solutions to the struggles of our community and our world. And may we continue to encounter the Risen Christ in all the unexpected corners of our lives.

Blessings,

Austin

A Musical Note by Andi Smith

When you hear the word ‘season’, what do you think of? Most of us probably think Spring . . . Or summer . . . or fall . . . or winter. Season can also be adding spices to enhance the flavor of our food. We have seasons in our church liturgical year like, Advent, Epiphany, Lent and Easter. When one season ends, another one begins. I also tend to think of seasons for the vocal and handbell choirs, fall and spring. We are coming to the end of our spring season, and the time is fast approaching for them to take a summer break. It's time for the members to take some time off and get some rest. We'll return in the fall, refreshed and recharged, ready to enhance the flavor of our services. As you may have noticed, the number of singers and ringers is pretty small. We would really love to have more voices and more hands to join. Perhaps you would like to join either (or both) groups in the fall. What about you? Are you ready for the next season? Meanwhile, for the month of May, would you join me in offering thanks for each person in CTK's music ministry.

Why Am I Worth It?

*I sit and I wonder and pray to God, why?
Why did you send Jesus to suffer and die?*

*He came as a baby, so tiny and so small;
He was a King, yet was born in a stall.*

*He came armed with Truth; a message of love;
He came to bring Peace and strength from above.*

*Why did He do it? I wonder and pray;
Why did He choose to come in this way?*

*Why was He willing to go through the pain?
To be crucified? What was He to gain?*

*He spoke to my heart and He mentioned my name;
He told me He loved me and that's why he came.*

*I'm no one special, but He's right by my side;
To comfort, to strengthen, to love and to guide.*

*I'm a child of His; more worthy than gold;
His arms to surround me, His hand I can hold.*

*Why am I worth it? I ask and I pray.
His simple reply: Because I made you that way.*

*April 21, 2003
Andi Smith*

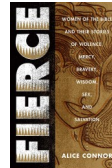

We would like to thank everyone who has so generously helped our son, Joe, throughout his healing. He is healing fairly well. He has an appointment in mid-May with the spine specialist. We are praying that he will be cleared to return to work at that time. Your assistance has helped him to pay his bills in March and April. He just needs to get through May. He has been able to do some driving for Lyft and while it's not something he wants to do on a permanent basis, he's able to keep up with some bills. As you can imagine, he's going stir crazy and looking forward to the day when he can stop wearing his back brace. Please keep him in your prayers for continued healing. Again, Bill and I are so grateful for everything you have done for him. ~ Andi and Bill Smith

What is grace? What if we as Christians have been focusing too much on the relationship of grace to our sins and not enough on how God's grace is connected to our goodness? Hildegard of Bingen was a 12th century abbess, preacher, musician, herbalist, painter, and poet who often wrote about the greening of God being the life force that is pulsing throughout the universe, nurturing God's love and goodness in everything that is. Come green the goodness of God's grace in your life through this interactive series where we will be creatively making our ideas and questions of God's grace and goodness in our lives and reading Christ of the Celts: The Healing of Creation by J. Philip Newell.

This series will be co-led by Rev. Dr. Austin Leininger and Angela Hummel. Angela has a BA, and MA in Theology and is currently working on her Doctorate in Ministry at Illiff school of Theology. Angela has created a method for exploring ideas and questions about God through making art, what she calls, Art Theology. Her ideas have been published by TEDx and the Wabash foundation. We are extremely grateful to the Episcopal Church and the Roanridge grant for funding that has made this opportunity possible.

We begin with Art Theology on May 7th in the Chapel at 11:30am. Prelude and Chapters 1-2 on May 14th please bring a copy of Christ of the Celts: The Healing of Creation by J. Philip Newell. Copies can be purchased at Amazon or Christianbooks.com.

Caring Connections

Open Offering for May

The Open Plate Offering for May will go to the CTK General Fund. Thank you for all your generosity.

Breakfast at The Rising Thursday, May 2, 8:00a.m.

Christ the King will be serving breakfast at The Rising in Olde Town Arvada on Thursday, May 2. All are welcome to help. Please contact Mary Beattie if interested.

Climate Care Group No Meeting in May

Our CTK Climate Care team is working on a few environmentally friendly projects for the next few months:

1. Mike Paugh has written an informative piece about various resources concerning electronic recycling (see below).
2. Instead of our May meeting on Zoom, some of the Climate Care team will be visiting a new nursery in west Arvada called Finding Nectar, on Saturday, April 29th. This nursery sells primarily pollinator plants, so we are hoping to find a few new plants for Gary's Garden.

3. Mike Paugh has the Adopt-A-Plot chart displayed in the Narthex, please sign up!
4. The Dream Books recycling receptacle is located in the southwest corner of the main parking lot, please donate any books, DVDs, CDs, or video games, thank you!
5. Jeneene Lowe is heading up our can recycling mission, please talk to her about either bringing in cans or bringing in the money from recycling them.

Thank you to our CTK community for all of your support! We feel like you are always so open to the many ideas that we continue to learn about ourselves!

Crafters of the King Monday, May 8, 10:00a.m.— Noon, Library Saturday, May 20, 10:00a.m.— 3:00p.m., Parish Hall

As we move into May 2023, the CTK Crafters will be working on their projects related to our group's original four options:

- Crocheting or knitting prayer shawls or lap robes for those facing personal challenges; these are blessed and can be obtained by parishioners as a gift for a loved one. The item offers a feeling of support and warmth to those suffering through difficult times. Contact the CTK Office for more information.
- Creating warm hats and scarves for the homeless and others who visit the special outreach program at The Rising in Old Town Arvada and St Clare's Table.
- Researching and creating a variety of projects for sale at the annual CTK Craft Fair. We already have some exciting new ideas to offer greater variety and appeal.
- Working on our own individual projects.

Electronic Recycling

The Climate Care Team investigated doing an electronic recycling event this summer. We found that an event like this isn't feasible for us to do. This is based on a limited number of recyclers to work with. We decided to provide information about electronic recycling options available near us instead of hosting an event.

One of the cheapest options is your local Best Buy store. They will accept up to three items per household per day. There is no charge for most items. They charge $30 per item for tube televisions smaller than 32 inches and flat panel screens. For details, see the Best Buy web site at bestbuy.com.

Another local option that many of you might already use is SustainAbility. This is a local recycler that hires differently abled people to work there. They recently moved their collection facility in Arvada and are in the process of re-locating to Broomfield, but they still accept a wide variety of items for recycling, including electronics. SustainAbility accepts computer towers, laptops, loose cables, and a few other items for free. Other electronic items can be recycled for between 55 and 85 cents per pound. All batteries must be removed from any items to be recycled. Click here for a full list of what they will accept, and prices.

Chemicals and metals in electronic equipment are bad for the environment. Dumping electronics in landfills is not the answer. Please consider recycling the old gear you have around the house.

Caring Connections Continued

Here are the activities we have planned for May 2023:

- Monday, May 8: Regular CTK Crafters gathering in the library from 10:00 am until 12:00 noon. Join us for wonderful warm fellowship, good times and project sharing, and get to know our most welcome new members.

Please contact Kay Seiler 303 460-9234 or Peggy Broderick 303 954-0243 if you have any questions.

During May our conversations will center on what it means to open our doors and our hearts in welcome and affirmation for all Gods children.

No Place for Racism

Conversations on Racial Justice and Reconciliation Tuesday, May 9 & May 23 7:00 p.m. on Zoom

"If one really wishes to know how justice is administered in a country, one does not question the policemen, the lawyers, the judges, or the protected members of the middle class. One goes to the unprotected — those, precisely, who need the law's protection most! — and listens to their testimony."
— James Baldwin, No Name on the Street

Conversations – We are individuals gathered to share our experiences and knowledge knowing none of have the whole picture. We are committed to staying in relationship to share, discuss, listen, and grow together. We may not always agree, but we always respect each other and strive to be a living example of the Beloved Community. Racial and Social Justice - In a continually shifting national and world landscape, we believe the pursuit of racial and social justice is more important than ever. Please JOIN US as we continue our journey to expand our knowledge of history, enhance our awareness of situations and policies that stand in the way of racial and social justice in our community and nation today and explore avenues of action that bring needed change. Reconciliation - Our desire is to create, foster and live in Beloved Community where love, human dignity, equality, and compassion are offered to and shared by all.

As a group we are pleased and excited to support our Vestry decision to engage our CTK family in becoming a BELIEVE OUT LOUD Episcopal Congregation. You can read more about this on the Diocesan Website and www.believeoutloud.com.

The First Book Of Common Prayer Commemoration Monday, May 29

In 1549, under the reign of Edward VI, successor to Henry VIII, the primary language of public worship in England and other areas ruled by Edward was changed from Latin to

English, and the first Book of Common Prayer came into use. It was first used on Pentecost Sunday, 9 June 1549, and the occasion is now commemorated "on the first convenient day following Pentecost." The Book was the work of a commission of scholars, but primarily of Thomas Cranmer, Archbishop of Canterbury.

See full article by James Kiefer.

Almighty and everliving God, who, through the Book of Common Prayer restored the language of the people in the prayers of your Church: Make us always thankful for this heritage; and help us so to pray in the Spirit and with the understanding, that we may worthily magnify your holy Name; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

Vestry Corner

Vestry Update

The financials for March showed that we are still a little behind the amount needed for the budgeted expenses. We collected $17,562.75 in pledges and $846.75 for the Ralston House. We do have reserves to keep up current bills. We thank you for your generosity. Everything we do is because of your support.

A church cleanup was scheduled for April 22 to be held indoors in case of bad weather. The Adopt a Plot map is in the Narthex for parishioners to help with the weed control of the property. We will continue to look into the possibility of getting solar panels on the Chapel roof and flat roof. This should be a positive for us in reducing Electricity costs.

The Vestry approved the request by the YMCA to use Kempseell Hall and a classroom for summer activities. This should help us financially. The Racial Justice and Reconciliation group presented a request for CTK to join the Believe Out Loud practice. The Vestry approved and more information will follow. Phil Goodman presented the information for a “Trunk Sale” on June 17. People will bring items for sale and showcase them out of their trunks in the parking lot. The Vestry approved the event and you will see more information. The Vestry was informed that Ros Patterson will be retiring soon. She will still be here until we find a replacement. We will celebrate her years of service at CTK when the actual date or her departure approaches.

Other items discussed: An Episcopal 101 class will be presented in the fall, possibly September. A book study on Christ of the Celts and a class in Art Theology will be presented in May. Look for more info.

The Vestry voted to not require any masks and to remove the blue x’s from the pews. The entire Nave will be open for use.
