Clergy Letter

Happy November, CTK Family!

As the colder temperatures of late autumn begin to chill our days and freeze our nights, we enter into the month of Thanks with our All Saints celebration this Wednesday following on the heels of one of my children's favorite fall holidays, Halloween. Luke has been collecting autumn and Halloween decorations for the better part of a month already, with his room looking particularly festive. The yard, in the meantime, has become home to some of the more macabre decorations of the coming festivities, and our cars are filled with autumn and Halloween playlists to help transition us into the longer oncoming chill (we may have just had our first snow on Saturday, but we'll be in the 60s again for the next week).

November has become for many of us a month of giving thanks—for all those who have gone before us on All Saints Day, as well as with the secular Thanksgiving holiday that takes us to Christ the King Sunday on November 26th. Throughout this month, we'll be seeking opportunities to give thanks for the inviting warmth and festive gatherings both at home and at CTK that nurture and warm our hearts.

Reflected in our readings this month, we hear the beatitudes, the parable of the talents, and the exhortation to feed the hungry, clothe the naked, welcome the stranger, and visit those in prison. Opening our hearts and minds to these scriptures in the context of giving thanks for all that we have helps us on a spiritual level to find true gratitude for the presence of God's abundance in our lives in whatever form it takes. A Lakota conception of each person recognizes that God fills each of us, as a glass of water is filled to the top, but each is given different portions of different gifts. Our job is to recognize, give thanks for, and utilize the gifts we've been given to the fullest. I like this conception as it recognizes that each person, regardless of level of ability, regardless of financial means, regardless of health, regardless of gender, regardless of race, regardless of any artificial division we place between ourselves to compare our worth to that of another, is whole, filled to the top with God's goodness and gifts, and each person has something to contribute to the community as we seek to gladden the hearts of those who journey this life with us. Marking each week of our month of Thanks with these readings is a marvelous way to remind us who we are, whose we are, and why we do what we do as followers of Christ.

Deadline:

Please submit articles by the 15th of the prior month.

In the spirit of giving thanks, November is also the month of our CTK pledge drive, reminding us of the gift that we are to one another as we gather together as a faith community to enrich one another's lives and deepen one another's faith. While stewardship is a year-round process of caring for the resources of our facilities, staff, ministries, and community, our pledge drive month is specifically a month-long process of intentional prayer and planning around finances for our next year together in ministry. By the grace of God and with the myriad gifts of this amazing parish family, CTK has, in potential, everything it needs to survive and thrive for the coming year. Please prayerfully consider what you're able to contribute to the financial health of your CTK parish family for the coming year, and fill out a pledge card (available in the narthex, online, as well as having been mailed out from CTK this past weekend).

Beyond our pledge drive, this month also holds opportunities to learn together about different kinds of welcoming as we strive to celebrate our diversity as a community of Christ's Body with the continuation of our Believe Out Loud process. As part of this process, we'll be working on a PhotoMosaic of CTK members, families, pets, and departed loved ones, which will become a rendering of Christ's own body made up of the many parts that is CTK—as Paul puts it in his first letter to the Corinthians, we are one body, many parts. Ideally, we'll have photos from each of YOU to include! Please send digital photos via email to Office@ctkarvada.org. If you need a print scanned, please let us know and we'll do our best to help!

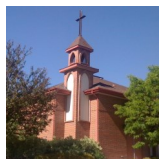

May this November be a month of warmth, of thanks, of feasts both in spirit and in good food, and of remembering that each of us is a beloved child of God with incredible abundance to celebrate and bring to bear on the lives of others and the world around us.

Blessings,

Austin

Bible Study Group Tuesdays in November @ 12:30pm, hybrid

The Bible Study group, led by Rev. Austin, meets weekly on Tuesdays at 12:30 pm in the chapel and on Zoom. We are currently reading and discussing the Book of Judges. All are welcome to come. Bring a Bible!

CTK Book Club Thursday @ 3:00pm on Zoom

The group will begin The Red Tent, by Anita Diamant on Thursday, November 2, 3:00p.m. In the Bible, Dinah's life is only hinted at in a brief and violent detour within the more familiar chapters of the Book of Genesis that tell of her father, Jacob, and his twelve sons.

The Red Tent begins with the story of the mothers--Leah, Rachel, Zilpah, and Bilhah--the four wives of Jacob. They love Dinah and give her gifts that sustain her through childhood, a calling to midwifery, and a new home in a foreign land. Dinah's story reaches out from a remarkable period of early history and creates an intimate connection with the past.

Deeply affecting, The Red Tent combines rich storytelling and the valuable achievement of presenting a new view of biblical women's lives.

Please contact Jean Thayer or Merri Crawford if you have any questions.

Hospitality

Family Movie Night

Vestry Update

The financials for show a $1200 deficit to date. We are falling a bit behind. Please keep paying your pledges and more if you can. What we do is because of your support. Molly Foley-Healey reported that Stewardship Committee has mailed the Pledge request letters. They are asking for $275,000 for the 2024 budget. Pledges are to be turned in on Christ the King Sunday November 26. We do have money coming from renting the building. Mirror Image Arts is renting the south classroom upstairs, AA open meeting group is meeting on Wed. evenings, and the Planina Choir meets on Thursday evenings. This should bring us about $10,000 next year.

Mike Paugh reported on some of the things that are scheduled to be completed. They will fix the Chapel Doors. A day of cleanup on 11/11 is scheduled. They will look at filters in the heaters and prepare for winter. Solar Panels are on hold as of now since the information about a tax rebate has not been formalized for a group that is a non-profit. We will continue to look for a way to finance replacing lights in the Nave.

A statement of Land Acknowledgement has been approved to be read at appropriate times during the year. Believe Out Loud is transitioning to a Welcoming Taskforce to continue the process a becoming a Welcoming Congregation per Believe Out Loud. The Vestry and Austin will participate in a Mutual Ministry Review with the Diocese. The Christmas Tea will be December 2 and the Craft sale dates are December 2 & 3 and will continue on December 10.

Sleeping safe and warm is something we can all too easily take for granted. Your gifts are greatly appreciated. SWSN provides emergency overnight shelter on life-threatening winter nights for the single individuals living on the streets in West Arapahoe and Jefferson counties. Volunteers welcome guests by name and provide a hot meal and a bed roll on severe weather nights from October through April each year.

"This is the kind of fast day I am after: to break the chains of injustice, get rid of exploitation in the workplace, free the oppressed, cancel debts. What I'm interested in seeing you do is: sharing your food with the hungry, inviting the homeless poor into your homes, putting clothes on the shivering ill-clad, being available to your own families. Do this and the lights will turn on, and your lives will turn around at once. Your righteousness will pave your way. You will be like a well-watered garden, a gurgling spring that never runs dry." Isaiah 58 V 6 and VII. The Message Bible

It is always our hope to foster beloved community a place where love, human dignity, equality, and compassion are offered to and shared by all God's children and where all people are honored, protected, and nurtured as beloved children of God. Stewardship - Living and Giving to Honor God

While autumn is traditionally a season of stewardship in the church, Stewardship is actually our daily and on-going gift of self in gratitude for all that God has done for us.

Daily we think and pray about what we have and what we can share with others. We think and pray about what we can do as a church family to be Jesus in the world today. Stewardship is our gift of care and compassion for those we don't know and for those who are not like us. It is our gift of care for the earth and all creation. It is our hope for the future; for our children and grandchildren.

You will soon be receiving your annual stewardship letter and pledge card in the mail. Please join the stewardship team as we encourage and engage each other in the joy of giving. If you have a giving story you would like to share, please contact the office or anyone on the Stewardship Team. You might like to share your story in church on Sunday or during coffee hour. You are also welcome to share your story in writing in the Weekly Update over the next few weeks. Together let us "Honor the Lord with our wealth, with the first fruits of all our crops; then our barns will be filled to overflowing, and our vats will brim over with new wine." Proverbs 3:9-10

Advent Adult Forum

Sundays at 11:15a.m. in the Library

Advent is the season of waiting for Jesus to arrive — and it's also a time when Mary comes center stage. For thousands of years, Christians have called her many names: Theotokos ("Bearer of God" or "House of God"), Our Lady of Guadalupe, the First Disciple, and many more.

So this Advent season, as we prepare for Jesus to arrive, let's get to know Mary a little bit better, filling out her ordinary, extraordinary, inspiring portrait — all the while learning how we, too, can make our homes (and our hearts!) "houses of God."
