Clergy Letter

Happy October, CTK Family!!

With the Autumnal Equinox behind us and the days already a bit shorter than the nights, we arrive in October with the promise of harvest bounty and thoughts of preparation for the winter months ahead. Jane has already scheduled our sprinkler blowout for later this month, and at my house we've already enjoyed the first fruits of the harvest with Pumpkin bagels and Luke's first batch of chocolate chip pumpkin muffins.

This time of year we are reminded of what it takes to survive the darker months of autumn and winter as we plan for our own families as well as for our parish family. More than any other time of year, the reminder of the importance of community draws us together for the feasts and festivals that will lead us this and next month into Advent and Christmas beyond. Outside, leaves are already changing color, our grocery stores are displaying the end of the month revelry of All Hallows Eve (Hallow e'en) that comes just a day before our All Saint's Day celebration, and the early mountain-snows have already begun (though the first one from last week has also already melted)! Inside, we prepare to celebrate St. Francis Day this Sunday, as well as to kick off our Episcopal 101 Forum—meeting throughout October, and we look forward to our October Family Movie Night (Hocus Pocus) on the 28th just before our celebrations of All Hallows Eve on the 31st and All Saints Day on November 1st.

Autumn is a time of annual gatherings as a parish family to remember who we are and whose we are as we bless our pets, take stock of our finances and plan for the year to come, remember that stewardship is a ministry of keeping our community open and vibrant, and begin the liturgical and festive planning that leads us into the high holiday seasons that begin with All Saints on November 1st and take us through to Epiphany in January. There is so much to recommend this time in our church year, and so many opportunities to gather for fellowship and fun!

Yet, for all that we are planning and doing this month, at the heart lies the ongoing desire to find community with one another, to be in fellowship, to worship together, and to bring our faith to bear on the significant times and seasons of our lives and world. We've spent the past month remembering the sacred world in which we live (concluding with St. Francis Day this Sunday), as well as having conversations with one another about what it means to specifically welcome marginalized groups to find community and home with us in both our Social Justice group and our Believe Out Loud process. This autumn those conversations continue with opportunities to come and hear guest speakers (this Saturday!) and community forums designed to answer some of the questions that accompany the work we've been doing as a community.

Deadline:

Please submit articles by the 15th of the prior month.

Finally, as we worship and pray our way through this opening of our autumn celebrations, we also kick off our fall pledge campaign. Too often, we associate "stewardship" with our pledge drive. While the pledge drive does factor into our stewardship, there isn't a season or a drive for stewardship. It is a year-round and life-long caring for the resources with which we have been tremendously blessed as a family. Our beliefs about who we are and why we gather as a community factor into our decisions for how much we are able to give annually, but the reality is that everything we do as a parish family that includes Christ the King's building, staff, clergy, and resources can only be done because of the generosity of each member of our parish family. The tremendous gift of being called into this family as a spiritual leader, guide, and member is one that I and my family continue to give thanks for every day.

In my second autumn with Christ the King, I am greatly looking forward to the now familiar celebrations that lie ahead, and I am incredibly grateful for getting to be a part of this journey of faith with each of you as we warm the halls and gladden the days of our church, homes, and hearts together. Happy Autumn!

Blessings,

Austin

Weekday Services

Contemplative Prayer - Tuesdays @ 12:00p.m., hybrid

Rev. Austin leads the group in a twenty minute session of Contemplative Prayer. All are welcome to join in the parish hall or on Zoom. NOTE: On the first Tuesday of the month at 11:30a.m. Austin will talk about the different forms of contemplative prayer.

Compline – Wednesdays, 8:30pm

The service of Compline "completes" the day; it usually takes about 20 minutes. Merri Crawford will be leading this service each week; others are welcome to share leadership with her as you become familiar with this service. Compline is currently held on Zoom. Contact the office for a Zoom invite or see the Weekly Update for a link.

Morning Prayer – Fridays, 8:00am

Now, you can join in from home through Zoom. Ros Patterson, Jean Thayer and Jessica Starbird will lead the service; others are welcome to lead as you are comfortable.

The Blessing of the Animals Sunday, October 1

Please bring your pets to service for the blessing. For animals that need to remain outdoors a blessing will be given following service.

Vestry Corner

Vestry Update

The financials for August were presented and show some positive numbers. We are able to pay our bills and keep up with our necessary expenses. What we do is because of your support. Molly Foley-Healey reported that Stewardship Committee will be starting our annual pledge drive. You can expect a letter in October. Mary Beattie reported from the Outreach Committee that they are asking for another month of open offerings to support the Charitable organizations they have designated for 2024. We will review that after the annual pledge drive. We are very happy to help them as we can to support these organizations as we are able.

Mike Paugh reported on some of the things the Property Committee has completed. The kitchen sink has no garbage disposal at this point. So put any garbage in the trash. The water problem in the Youth Formation Office was taken care of. Hopefully they were able to fix the leak on the roof. The Chapel doors were addressed because of their problem of sticking. The problem of the lights in the Nave will be researched. We will look to replace the lights with better functioning light and replacing the cylinders that have fallen. This will be a $18,000 - $20,000 project. We will be looking for means to fund this.

The Contract for David C. to continue our pursuit of the Solar Panel project has been signed and we are waiting on information about the funding. The Vestry voted to approve the use of an office near the old Chapel by Mirror Image Arts and Teresa Mazza. They will rent the South classroom. Delegates will be attending the Diocesan Convention in Grand Junction: Larry Healy, Barbara Jennings, Jeri Burry as well as Rev Austin Leininger.

Mirror Image Arts at CTK Open House, Sunday, October 15

Mirror Image Arts has moved into the building. They can be found in the south classroom upstairs and will be offering an open house meet and greet on Sunday, October 15 after service. The team spends most of their time working remotely and will be in and out of the building, Mirror Image Arts is a non-profit and here's what they do:

Our programming works with and for young people in education and the youth legal system.

Our facilitators are skilled theatre makers, first aid mental health youth certified, with ongoing training in relevant evidence-based practices (positive youth development, social-emotional learning, trauma-informed care, healing-centered engagement, culturally responsive teaching, and restorative practices).

Goals for all of our programs include:

- Provide youth with a safe, caring relationship with a trusted adult

- Co-create spaces of belonging where youth AND youth-serving adults can build self-awareness, connection, empathy, compassion, and nervous system regulation
- Offer youth-supported spaces where they can process their emotions, practice bold decision-making, and reflect on the results of their choices
- Role model for youth how resilience can be expressed so they can navigate complex social situations and come back stronger
- Assist schools and juvenile detention centers in their move from punitive disciplinary practices toward positive youth development and restorative and healing-centered engagement practices

As trusted adults, we believe our job is to ACT:

- Show up with Authenticity/Vulnerability
- Cultivate spaces of Curiosity & Courage
- Foster and Nurture Trust

For more info about Mirror Image Arts visit their website and don't miss out on meeting these dynamic individuals on the 15th.

Caring Connections

Open Offering and Outreach for October

The open offering for the month of October will go to the General Fund. Thank you to everyone for your financial gifts as we continue to make up for a budget short fall.

Breakfast at The Rising Thursday, October 5, 8:00a.m.

Christ the King will be serving breakfast at The Rising in Olde Town Arvada on Thursday, October 5. All are welcome to help. Please contact Mary Beattie if interested.

Climate Care Group Thursday, October 5th at 6p.m.

The Climate Care Team would like to thank everyone who helped Christ the King celebrate Season of Creation 2023 this past month. Several people helped prepare and plan for the additional activities this year. We hope that they made Season of Creation more educational and spiritually meaningful for you.

"Humans merely share the earth. We can only protect the land, not own it." Chief Seattle

Please join us for our next meeting on Zoom, on Thursday, October 5th, at 6 PM.

Crafters of the King

The Crafters of the King is open to individuals who are crafters and wish to join a supportive group that focuses on making and sharing their hand-made items with our community. If you knit, crochet, bead, paint, quilt, or have other talents that you would like to share, this group may be just the right fit for you!

For now, our primary focus is in these areas:

- Creating prayer shawls or lap robes for individuals who are going through difficult times. These items are blessed and are available to church members and others who might be comforted from receiving them.
- Creating warm hats and scarves for individuals who benefit from The Rising outreach program in Olde Town Arvada.

- Creating a variety of items for our annual Craft Fair which is held around the Christmas Tea, scheduled to be held on Saturday, December 2, 2023. All proceeds from craft sales will go to the Christ the King General Fund.
- Working on individual projects, creating individual quilts or other artworks.

New members are always welcomed. We hold our gatherings as follows:

- The CTK Crafters regular monthly gathering is held on the second Monday of each month (October 9, 2023, from 10:00 a.m. until 12 noon) in Kempshell Hall.
- The Quilters and Crafters Open House Craft Day is held on the fourth Saturday of each month (October 28, 2023, from 10 a.m. until 3 p.m.). Drop in to join us for however much time you have. You can bring a lunch with you if you wish and enjoy fellowship and a view of a variety of crafts.

Contact Pat Barker, Kay Seiler, or Peggy Broderick for more information about the Crafters of the King group.

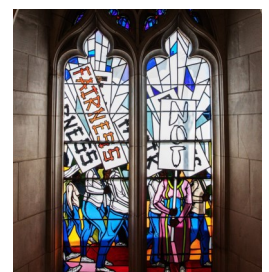

Social Justice Conversations Tuesday, October 24, 2023 7:00 p.m. on Zoom All are welcome to Zoom in and chat!

"Work for justice. Help the down and out. Stand up for the homeless. Go to bat for the defenseless."
Isaiah 1:17 The Message Bible

Our conversation group continues to share, learn, and grow in an effort to create and foster a community where love, human dignity, equality, and compassion are offered to and shared by all God's children; where all people are honored, protected, and nurtured as beloved children of God. Please note that we will be meeting once a month on the 4th Tuesday during the fall and winter. ALL ARE WELCOME TO JOIN THE CONVERSATION!

Why is the Church involved in social justice matters? On October 24 the Social Justice Conversations group will look at the scriptural underpinnings of the church's teachings. This informative conversation led by Dan Mondragon.

Each month, the Church of Christ the King prepares and serves dinner for about 80 people at St. Clare’s Table, located at the Episcopal Church of St. Peter and St. Mary in Denver. Carpooling is available contact Mark with any questions.

Ladies Bunco Wednesday, October 18, 11:00 a.m.

October LADIES’ BUNCO is Wednesday, October 18, 2023 at 11:00 a.m. in Kempshell Hall. In August we played singles, the August Bunco Queen was Andi Smith, Jeneene Lowe was second place and third place was Jo Ann Hamm.

Please bring a snack to share. I will provide the soda and paper products. All ladies are welcome and you may bring your friends. If you have any questions contact Kay Seiler.

Open House Craft Day Saturday, October 28, 10 a.m.—3 p.m.

All crafters are welcome. Feel free to drop in to join us for however long you wish. Bring your current project, lunch (if you wish) and enjoy the fellowship of other crafters.

Food Pantry

Donations for the food pantry get donated to The Arvada Table as items get close to their expiration date so please do not bring expired food.

Assistance for the Hearing Impaired

Thanks to Rev. Austin and Phil Goodman for replacing the FM transmitter. This is such a game changer for anyone with any degree of hearing difficulty. Bring your FM radio and headphones and hear the entire service in crystal clear tone on channel 87.7. If you don’t have a radio, please ask the usher for a radio you can use during the service. These radios are brand new, battery loaded and ready to use. They are provided to the congregation by Rick Atkinson and Steve and Karen Barritt. Just use and return it to the ushers when the service is over. You can use these with provided headphones or with your own personal headphones if you prefer.

Mea Culpa

Apologies to Andi Smith, her entry for the Season of Creation section in last months’ issue did not get included. Thank you Andi for sharing.

In the late 90’s, I was struggling with a decision I knew I needed to make. My parents took me on a trip to the mountains during the fall season. We went to Mestaa’Ehehe (at that time it was known as Squaw Pass). The tapestry of color was so vivid and peaceful. Amongst that beauty, I was able to experience God in a way I never had before. That’s where I found the strength to make a difficult decision. While sitting in the back seat on the way back home, I wrote these words and later set them to music:

“Come, He Told Me” by Andi Smith

Come, he told me. Come and see.
Come see the hills, so calm and so still.
Look around at the mountains, deep and green.
Can you feel the peace?
Feels so serene.

Come see the trees the color of gold.
Their leaves in the breeze, their beauty behold.
Up above in a sky of blue, shines the sun.
Can you feel the love I have for you?
Can you feel the love?

Come, see the sky the color of the sea.
And come see the clouds as they roll by.
As I looked all around, I felt the peace; I felt the love.
In the beauty of His glory, God summoned me,
He said, “Come, let me give you strength.”
Come, He told me. Come and see.

Mondays @ 1:00p.m., Zoom

In October, we will continue reading: Brave: Women of the Bible and Their Stories of Grief, Mercy, Folly, Joy, Sex, and Redemption by Alice Connor.

A little about the book: Women are essential to the biblical story—they bear life, lead communities, and testify to God's power and presence. Some of their names we know, others we've only heard, and others, tragically, go unnamed.

Please contact Jean Thayer or Merri Crawford if you have any questions.

Food For Thought

October 4th is the feast day of St. Francis of Assisi, the patron saint of Italy, animals, nature, and campy lawn ornaments, not to mention the current Pope's namesake. He not only cared for impoverished people, he lived as one, and founded a movement of monks who live lives of simple poverty out and about in the world. He wrote songs and preached to both birds and people. Over the nearly eight centuries since his death, many have said that in no other human being has the life of Jesus come more vividly, tangibly alive.

We recommend taking a little time to celebrate him on or around October 4, or in any case sometime during the month. No need to be too literal about the precise "feast day" — why not think in terms of a "feast month"? Francis would approve!

Here are three lovely ideas: Bless Some Animals, Lift Up Biodiversity, Put the "Script" back in Scripture.

Believe
OUTLOUD

Believe Out Loud Update

Believe Out Loud is a process CTK is undertaking to determine if CTK will adopt a commitment to the intentional inclusion of LGBTQ+ individuals. Over the past several weeks, CTK's BOL leadership team has been busy conducting 1:1 visits to obtain church members' perspectives, questions, ideas, and concerns. The information from the visits and the congregational assessment surveys are now being reviewed by the team. During the 1:1 meetings, many church members expressed that CTK is a warm and welcoming community, and see this effort as a natural extension of who we are. Questions were raised that will be addressed in various ways in the coming weeks. Watch for educational opportunities in group settings and through written communications. Findings from the information gathering stage will be shared. If you wish to add additional thoughts please reach out to any of the leadership team members, listed below. Thank you for your thoughtful, prayerful participation in this important process. Together, we will chart the path forward.

CTK's BOL leadership team: Dan and Rachel Mondragon, Kathy Atkinson, Karen Barrett, Molly Foley-Healy, Jean Thayer, Ros Patterson, Merri Crawford, Mike Paugh, and Rev. Austin.

A Note from the Stewardship Team

Stewardship - Living and Giving to Honor God

Stewardship is a gift of self. It is our gifts of love and care for our family, our friends, our neighbors. It is our gift of care and compassion for those we don't know and for those who are not like us. It is our gift of care for the earth and all creation. It is our hope for the future for our children and grandchildren.

Fall is traditionally a season of stewardship in the church. It is a time to consider what we have, what we need, and what we can do as a church family to be Jesus in the world today. It is a time to dream and to plan what we will do in the coming year. Please consider joining with the stewardship team as we encourage and engage our church family in the joy of giving. We need and appreciate your ideas.

Please communicate with office@ctkarvada.org to join in the stewardship efforts!

Place your RaiseRight order by Sunday, October 29th!
