Parish Meeting on October 4

There is one item of business to complete at our parish meeting: approving the Amended and Restated Articles of Incorporation. The Vestry decided in 2016 to review this document, along with our bylaws, for two reasons: 1) our previous articles and bylaws had been approved more than 15 years earlier and 2) a new template for the articles was available from the Diocese. The time seemed appropriate for such a review.

Although new bylaws and articles were approved at the Annual Meeting in 2017, it appears we didn't read all the fine print. After several attempts were made over the next 18 months to secure diocesan approval of the articles, Rev. Becky was finally able to get the articles to Larry Hitt, the Diocesan Chancellor, in April of 2019. At that time, Mr. Hitt informed us that we needed to make several changes in order for the document to be approved. The Vestry addressed those changes in the next several months, but the work was set aside during Rev. Becky's sabbatical leave so that more immediate concerns could be addressed.

The final draft of the Amended and Restated Articles of Incorporation was approved by the Vestry on January 21, 2020. The Vestry could not bring them to the Annual Meeting for approval, however, because the parish must receive notice—and a copy of the articles—at least 30 days in advance of the meeting. The Vestry had planned to present this document to a special parish meeting in April, when the parish would also approve the fundraising plan for replacing the flooring in Kempshell Hall. The Covid 19 pandemic derailed those plans, along with many others.

In addition to approving these Amended and Restated Articles, Bob Mickelson and Barbara Jennings will also be describing how you can help to make the parish function smoothly during the transition following Rev. Becky's retirement. Please plan to attend this meeting; your voice is important.

Update from the Senior Warden

On September 8, the Vestry and members of the congregation met (by Zoom) with Canon Vanessa Stickler-Glass, the member of the Bishop's staff who works with parishes during transitions in clergy leadership. A video of her presentation and responses to questions is available here; the steps in the transition process are outlined on the Transition Timeline (see page 11).

Since then, the Vestry has interviewed a candidate to serve as the Transition Priest, whose background check has been completed and who Bishop Kym has approved. The Vestry still has to negotiate the Letter of Agreement before any announcement to the parish.

Keeping Up with Business During Transition

The ongoing work of the parish does not end during a transition in clergy leadership. In particular your help will be needed in the following areas: Property, Safety (especially related to Covid), Stewardship, Care Team, Communications, and Worship

More detail is available following the Vestry Highlights on page 8.

Update on The Rising

Susan Shirley, a long-time volunteer with our Neighborhood Dinner, is currently helping out at The Rising. Although our breakfast crews are currently unable to assist right now, there are other ways we can help. Here's the message from Susan:

*We really need some part-time volunteers for all kinds of duties at The Rising.
One shift of four to six hours a week is even fine.*

It's such a good place. And there is a real variety of jobs there, and it seems like people usually gravitate to something they really enjoy doing.

If you can't do it, though, I definitely understand. Maybe just keep The Rising in mind, if someone says they're looking for something to do.

Anyone interested can contact Karen at 303-422-1174 and just let whoever answers the phone know they are interested in volunteering.

I hope all is well with you. Thanks so much,

Susan

Warm Clothing, Blankets and Sleeping Bags for The Rising

Although we're unable to prepare breakfast at this time, we know that before long, cold weather will be here. As in the past, you can bring your donations to Christ the King and folks will take them to The Rising, where they will be distributed.

Becoming the Beloved Community Offered for One More Week Wednesday, October 21, 7:00pm

As we were planning Session III, we realized that there was just too much good stuff to cover in one night, so we've added an additional session to complete this work. There is still a chance to join in to the discussion of how Christ the King can move toward becoming the Beloved Community; the following videos describe the three stages of this journey:

We'll be focused on the last half of the "Healing" video when we gather.

Online Morning Prayer and Compline Services Begin Compline - Wednesday, October 14, 8:30pm Morning Prayer - Friday, October 16, 8:00am

When we first began to worship online, several people expressed an interest in having midweek services as well services on Sunday. Several parishioners have recently expressed a willingness to lead Morning Prayer and Compline each week, using our newly acquired familiarity with Zoom.

Compline – Wednesdays, 8:30pm

The service of Compline "completes" the day; it usually takes about 20 minutes. Merri Crawford will begin leading this service each week; others are welcome to share leadership with her as you become familiar with this service.

Morning Prayer – Fridays, 8:00am

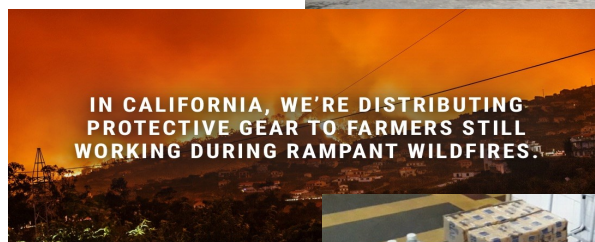

For at least 15 years, a small group of people has offered Morning Prayer at Christ the King. Sally Campbell initiated this service, and different people have participated and led since then. Now, you can join in from home. Ros Patterson and Jean Thayer will lead the service; others will be welcome to share leading as you are comfortable.

Open Offering for October Episcopal Relief and Development – Emergency Relief Fund

While the pandemic claims our attention both in the US and abroad, we find ourselves in the midst of both an unprecedented wildfire season and the Atlantic hurricane season. The weeks and months ahead hold a great deal of uncertainty, and they ask one thing of us: Be ready to act.

We are in close contact with our church partners both here in the US and abroad to assist them as they respond to disasters complicated by specific health, economic and social needs, which the COVID-19 pandemic has only exacerbated.

Our disaster recovery work begins with preparedness. But when the disaster hits, we respond swiftly. Help us be there for those who need aid. Your contributions in October will help Episcopal Relief and Development respond to these emergencies—and the next ones that strike without warning.

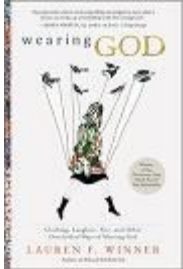

City of Arvada Looking to Expand Conversation on Diversity, Equity, and Inclusion

As part of an ongoing commitment to listen, learn and act as a City to continue to build a local government that serves everyone, the City will host remote community meetings; the second is on October 8, from 5 to 6pm. Community members will be able to participate using voice and video over the internet, or by phone. Please register in advance. You may do so online using the following link: Thursday, Oct. 8 (5 to 6pm). Register here For those who do not have internet access, registration is available at 720-898-7565.

Book Study Group
Thursdays, October 1, 8, 15, and 22
2:00pm on Zoom

We recently began reading Wearing God: Clothing, Laughter, Fire and Other Overlooked Images of God, by Lauren Winner. There are hundreds of metaphors for God, but the church uses relatively few, such as rock, judge, and father. In Wearing God, Lauren Winner gathers a number of lesser-known images, reflecting on how they work biblically and culturally, and reveals how they can deepen our spiritual lives. We began reading this book on September 17; newcomers are welcome to join. We will choose our next book on October 22.

Climate Care Group
Thursday, October 1, 6:30pm on Zoom

The Climate Care Group has been faithfully tending the replanted memorial garden, and the flowers are starting to fill in the empty space. Now, they will join in preparing a number of our other flower beds for the winter on Saturday, October 10. Additional plans and projects will be announced.

Men's Bible Study
Wednesdays, October 7 and October 21
8:00—10:00am, on Zoom

We will be finishing Was God on Vacation?, by Jack van der Geest, and discussing the last chapter and the “Afterword.” Please contact Tom Scholle (scholle.thomas@gmail.com) if you plan to attend.

Our next book is Bible Stories Revisited: Discovering Your Story in the Old Testament, by Macrina Scott. I have 9 copies that were shipped to me when I ordered her New Testament book and I didn’t realize she had written two books. Let me know if you want one so I can get it to you, they are $ 15.00 each.

Conversations on Racism
Tuesdays, October 13 and October 27
7:00pm on Zoom

This group, which first started meeting in June, continues to explore the effects of racism on us as individuals, as a church, and on the wider community, using a variety of resources. We will continue to look for ways to extend this conversation and bring others into the work of dismantling a system that has destroyed so many lives.

Clergy Letter

Saying Good-bye during the “Season of Covid”

Dear People of God,

A few weeks ago, at one of the innumerable Zoom meetings with the Bishop’s staff, someone shared that he or she (I can’t remember who) had begun to call this past six months the “Season of Covid.” It isn’t, of course, an official liturgical season—somewhere in the background we have moved through Lent and Easter, and into this season of “Ordinary Time”—but it has been hard to tell the difference. The best we’ve been able to do is to begin holding services outdoors, but last Sunday’s cold and wind was a stark reminder that this, too, must end.

And yet, many of you braved the weather and the pandemic to come so we could celebrate Eucharist together, while six of you were able to share the sacrament with eleven more people, so they could be a part of our offering of thanksgiving. The service was awkward and somewhat rushed, as part of the equipment began blowing around the parking lot and some received communion in their gloves, but I know it meant a lot to me to be able to offer this gift of God's grace to you.

But before I go, I want to thank you all for the privilege of serving you here at Christ the King. I have appreciated your willingness to trust me with your confidences, to allow me to walk with you in your grief, to experiment with worship and faith formation, to approach me with new ideas, and to support my efforts to help us grow as members of the Body of Christ.

For you have helped me to grow in my own faith and understanding of how God is at work in the world and among us. And I have all confidence in the Spirit, who will continue to guide all of us as we now follow different paths as we continue to grow and practice the Way of Love that Jesus taught.

So this is the last time I will be writing to you as your priest. Many of you already know that, once I leave at the end of this month, I will not be available to you to respond to your questions or concerns; that will first be the responsibility of your transition priest and later your new rector. As hard as this will be for all of us, I ask you to please observe this distance. Saying good-bye during this time will be a lot like our Eucharist last Sunday—somewhat rushed and awkward, but even in this moment, we can trust that God's grace will abound.

In God's peace,

Becky+

Worship and Music

Looking Ahead

It has been a joy to gather with one another as we offered worship "On the Tarmac" these past several weeks, ending with our first Eucharist celebration since March. The incidence rates of new infections appear to be dropping once again, which will allow us to begin worship inside on October 11. Please be aware, however, that should these rates increase once again, we will need to return to only online worship.

As before, the following guidelines will be in place:

- ◆ Make your reservation by Thursday either through the online link or by calling the church office (Limit 40)
- ◆ Stay home if feeling sick.
- ◆ Enter through the main doors at the south end of the building.
- ◆ Wear a protective face mask at all times.
- ◆ Maintain at least 6 feet of distance between self and any other non-family member person.
- ◆ Use hand sanitizer when entering the worship space.
- ◆ Sit only in the marked seating areas.
- ◆ Use the bathrooms located directly adjacent to the narthex, and follow the posted directions for sanitizing after use.
- ◆ Notify the Rector or Sr. Warden if one is diagnosed with COVID-19.

Above all, we ask that you recognize your responsibility to help keep other members of our community safe when gathering for worship. We will need to record who is present, so that in case of an infection we can assist with contact tracing. If you are diagnosed with COVID 19, please let us know as soon as possible. As awkward as this seems, it is truly the only way we can safely begin to worship together again.

Online Worship Continues Sunday Morning Prayer, 10:15 a.m.

We will continue to offer Morning Prayer through Zoom on Sundays for the foreseeable future, for we know that many folks will be hesitant to gather, even with our safety protocols in place. The 10:15 time will remain the same for October 11 and October 18; the times for October 25, Rev. Becky's last Sunday, will be announced as soon as possible.

Many thanks to Andi and Jeff Smith and Michelle Bredine, who have provided music for the online service, which has added so much to our worship experience. And remember, if you miss a service, we post these each week on YouTube, glitches and all. Please be sure to contact the church office if you need the "Zoom" link.

Handbell and Vocal Choir Hold Zoom Meetings

Keeping in touch with one another is hard during these times—and so is planning for what might come next! Members of our choirs are meeting every other week; please check the calendar on the last page for dates and times.

Faith Formation

Men's Breakfast and Bible Study Wednesdays, October 7 and 21, 8:00 - 10:00am on Zoom

We are currently reading from the book Was God on Vacation?, by Jack van der Geest. The Zoom session will begin at 7:30am so you can get it set up if you have not used it before. Our next book will be Bible Stories Revisited: Discovering Your Story in the Old Testament. Tom has copies available; please notify Tom if you plan to attend.

Conversations on Racism Tuesdays, October 13 and 27, 7:00pm on Zoom

We will continue to explore ways to learn about and respond as Christians to the challenges of systemic racism.

Bible Study Group Tuesdays, 2:00pm on Zoom

We are currently reading Meeting Jesus Again for the First Time, by Marcus Borg. Participants are encouraged to read the next chapter before our discussion; on October 6, we will be discussing Chapter 4, "Jesus and Wisdom: Teacher of Alternative Wisdom."

Book Group Thursdays, 2:00pm on Zoom

We are currently reading Wearing God: Laughter, Fire and Other Overlooked Images of God, by Lauren Winner. On October 8, we'll be discussing "Laboring Woman"; we welcome all who would like to join us in our conversation.

Becoming Beloved Community Wednesday, October 21, 7:00pm on Zoom

Where are we now? Where do we go from here? After responding to a few more stories of racial healing, those gathered will begin discussing the next steps for Christ the King.

Hospitality

Welcoming Visitors and Newcomers

As we begin to offer worship services again here at Christ the King, we will need to think about how we will welcome visitors—on Sunday morning and beyond. For the next couple of months, we will not be holding coffee hour, so other forms of "socially distanced contact" will be important. The Welcome Bags that Linda Palmer has been preparing also need to be updated and we will need help in doing so—both in deciding on the content and preparing those materials. Please contact the church office if you can assist with this work.

The Lunch Bunch

The Lunch Bunch is postponed until we can safely gather again.

Ladies' Bunco

The Ladies' Bunco is postponed until we can safely gather again.

The 2020 Christmas Tea

The "Tea Ladies" have decided that this year's Christmas Tea is being postponed until we can safely gather again.

Caring Connections

Crafters of the King

Mondays, October 5 and October 19, 10:00am - 12:00noon

The Crafters of the King meet each month to share a time of supportive fellowship, while working on their individual projects. These may be a personal project or something to be shared, such as prayer shawls for the church, or hats and scarves for the folks who come to The Rising Day Center. At a recent meeting, Crafters noted the need for more Prayer Shawls. We hope to have our Prayer Shawls blessed on Sunday, October 18.

Our meetings in August and September will be held by Zoom; please contact the church office if you need the link.

St. Clare's Table

Tuesday, October 13, 5:00 p.m.

Each month, the Church of Christ the King prepares and serves dinner for about 80 people at St. Clare's Table, located at the Episcopal Church of St. Peter and St. Mary in Denver. In September, we will again be preparing food at CTK, putting it in plastic bags, and taking it to St. Clare's for distribution. To help, please contact Mark Molello.

Breakfast at the Rising Day Center and the Neighborhood Dinner

During the ongoing health crisis, we will not be serving breakfast at the Rising or offering the Neighborhood Dinner. Please see page 2 for how you can assist the folks who come to The Rising.

Vestry Highlights September, 2020

Reports received:

Dear Christ the King Episcopal Church,

Arvada High School is incredibly grateful for the generous donation of $727.08! Donations like these make us proud to be part of the Arvada community. We are truly blessed to have such wonderful community support. This money covered 15 students’ graduation fee and allowed them to walk in our August ceremony. This donation had a huge impact on these 15 students and we can’t thank you enough!

October Birthdays

We give you thanks, O God, for the gift of life. And we thank you especially for bestowing this gift upon these, your people. Guard them, protect them, uphold them and strengthen them for your service. In Jesus’ name we pray. Amen.
